

Russell was an excellent lawyer from start to finish. Before each step of the process he was clear in explaining his role, what he would be doing, and what I was to expect or needed to do. He was always very professional in appearance and conduct. His experience along with the time and work he put into my case was really shown at my hearing.

He was very available for contact and kept me updated throughout the entire process. He was able to answer all of my questions clearly and in terms I could understand. He was always very willing to help me make sense out of a lot of the legal mumbo jumbo, which let me walk away with valuable knowledge, in addition to great results.

Thanks again. I really appreciate everything you've done Russell. I didn't bring up how good of a deal you got me (wasn't sure if it was appropriate), but you really were the most bang for the buck in comparison to the other guys. This really was a learning experience for me and you kicked some serious ass in that courtroom. (You can add this if you'd like).

Thanks for bearing with me.

*This client was charged with drug possession, D.U.I. and traffic violations. After Mr. Bryant's filing of a variety of pre-trial motions, and following lengthy plea negotiations with the State, the prosecutor offered to let the client plea to reduced charges. However, given his knowledge of the applicable law, his experience in the courtroom, and his detailed analysis of both the factual and legal issues involved in the case, Mr. Bryant rejected the very favorable plea offer. Instead, he insisted on a formal court hearing where he successfully presented a defense which excluded all of the evidence against his client. End result - the judge granted Mr. Bryant's motion and all criminal charges against the client were dismissed. No jail, no fines, no probation, no record, etc.
